

Sentences

Circle the word in parentheses that correctly completes each sentence.

1. My friends gave us a whirlwind (rest/tour/session) of Paris.
2. (Breeze/Tornado/Breath) wind speeds can reach 120mph.
3. The plane is about an hour behind (schedule/chaos/confusion) due to poor weather.
4. There is a lot of (moisture/aridity/dryness) in the air, which makes it feel even hotter than it really is.
5. Your (roll/return/payment) is now two months overdue.
6. It is (wholesome/dangerous/certain) for children to play near this pond.
7. The hikers set off, paying no heed to the severe (clouds/sunshine/blizzard).
8. Let's stop at the next (mind/service/polish) station.
9. The weatherman is (recollecting/forecasting/remembering) a beautiful sunny weekend.
10. There were (floods/droughts/avalanches) as a result of the heavy rain.

Sentences

Circle the word in parentheses that correctly completes each sentence.

1. My friends gave us a whirlwind (rest/tour/session) of Paris.
2. (Breeze/Tornado/Breath) wind speeds can reach 120mph.
3. The plane is about an hour behind (schedule/chaos/confusion) due to poor weather.
4. There is a lot of (moisture/aridity/dryness) in the air, which makes it feel even hotter than it really is.
5. Your (roll/return/payment) is now two months overdue.
6. It is (wholesome/dangerous/certain) for children to play near this pond.
7. The hikers set off, paying no heed to the severe (clouds/sunshine/blizzard).
8. Let's stop at the next (mind/service/polish) station.
9. The weatherman is (recollecting/forecasting/remembering) a beautiful sunny weekend.
10. There were (floods/droughts/avalanches) as a result of the heavy rain.